Hubbardton Forge Receives National Design Award

The American Society of Furniture Designers (ASFD) named Hubbardton Forge CEO George Chandler winner of the 2005 Pinnacle Award for Design Achievement in Lighting. The award was presented for Hubbardton Forge's 2005 introduction of the "Stasis" floor and table lamps; it was announced during the recent High Point International Home Furnishings Show in North Carolina. This is the fourth consecutive year that Hubbardton Forge has been one of the four finalists of the annual prestigious design award and the third time the company and designer George Chandler was declared the winner.

Hubbardton Forge is a manufacturer of hand-forged wrought-iron lighting and accessories located in Castleton, Vermont.
